Note:

The Balatlar Church (archaeological excavations are carried out there since several years) which stands in the ward Ada of Sinop, was constructed in A.C.660 during the Byzantium period. The church has a rectangular plan and west and east walls have been ruined but North and South walls are in a better condition. In the construction of the walls, four lines of stone and four lines of brick were used. It is one of the best examples of the period in the handwork of stone and brick. There are frescoes about Christ, Virgin Mary and Apostler.
